

FROM THEORY TO PRACTICE: INTEGRATING FAMILY SYSTEMS AND SOLUTION-FOCUSED STRATEGIES FOR EFFECTIVE COUPLES COUNSELING

A Workshop with Patrick Norton, LPC, NCC

A WORKSHOP FOR ALL MENTAL HEALTH PROFESSIONALS

This training event delves into the practical integration of Family Systems Theory and Solution-Focused Brief Therapy in the context of couples counseling. Through a comprehensive curriculum, attendees will explore the core principles and key concepts of both therapeutic approaches. The program is designed to equip professional counselors with hands-on strategies for seamlessly incorporating these theories into their practice. Learning objectives include understanding the foundational principles of Family Systems Theory and Solution-Focused Brief Therapy, gaining proficiency in their practical application, and enhancing therapeutic skills in fostering collaborative communication, facilitating change-focused conversations, and creating actionable goals with couples. This event is ideal for counselors seeking to elevate their expertise in couples counseling and broaden their therapeutic toolkit.
